The 56th Annual

FREEDOM AT THE ARBORETUM

Wednesday, July 4th
Spokane's Finch Arboretum

Live music begins at noon
With Bob Rice & Dave McRae

Program will include song, poetry, theater and speakers such as

Sen. Andy Billig
Washington State Senate, Deputy Majority Leader, Democrat 3rd District, co-owner Spokane Indians, on:

"Government of, by and for the People!"

Join us as we celebrate the revolutionary ideals that inspired the foundation of our country and clearly need to be affirmed today: human equality; human rights; democracy; freedom of religion, speech, assembly; and the press. Patriotism is a commitment to these ideals, and civic engagement on their behalf is a patriotic endeavor.

Let's have fun. It's a picnic. This is a non-partisan event. Together we will proclaim the Declaration of Independence. We'll gather in the cool shade next to the old school at Finch Arboretum. It is a beautiful spot with many wonderful people. Bring your own picnic and chairs. There'll be a pot-luck dessert table, so if you wish bring something sweet to share. Water will be available, please bring your own cup. Arboretum restrooms will be open.

The Westbrook family assisted by enthusiastic friends have organized this gathering since 1962. Special thanks to Stage Left Theater and Indie Air Radio. If you have questions about our casual, yet spirited rally contact:

Directions to Finch Arboretum: From I90 take the Maple Street exit and head north then turn west (left) on 2nd Avenue. 2nd Ave will curve around the Browne's Addition Rosauer's and becomes Sunset Highway. Drive across the old Sunset Bridge, straight through the stop light and up Sunset Hill. Halfway up the hill, turn left into Finch Arboretum (there is a sign). The road skirts the park, we'll be behind the old school building next to the creek.
