

Dear Skills'kin employees and partners,

As a government contractor, Skills'kin is committed to taking affirmative action to ensure that job seekers receive equal opportunity when seeking employment with Skills'kin without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, or status as a qualified individual with a disability or protected veteran.

We appreciate your support by referring qualified applicants for consideration. Whenever possible, please refer qualified minorities, women, persons with disabilities, Vietnam era veterans, and other protected veterans.

Your assistance in referring all qualified candidates will help us to achieve our commitment to Equal Employment Opportunity. Thank you in advance for your support.

About Us!

Skills'kin is a community-based, not-for-profit agency providing employment opportunities in Washington, Montana, Wyoming and Oklahoma. Our mission is to enrich the quality of life for adults with disabilities. To learn how we are becoming the company most known for creating and implementing the model for delivery of collaborative services for adults with disabilities, visit us at www.skills-kin.org.

Current employees may submit either a completed Skills'kin application or letters of interest to Human Resources.
