Celebrating Sisterhood: For Such A Time As This

A time of rest, relaxation, and renewal for women of all ages

This three-day retreat at beautiful Camp N Sid Sen on the shores of lovely Lake Coeur d' Alene will provide opportunities for worship, fun, creativity, quiet, prayer, music, and laughter. All activities are purely voluntary, so if what you need is to just get away from life for a while and relax, you are welcome to come and truly 'retreat.'

Our scripture focus will be the story of Hagar in the book of Genesis. Through the study of Hagar, we will look at what it means to be a woman in our day and time, how gender bias affects us, and what each of us can do "at such a time as this."

Art Project: we will have an Artist In Residence to lead us in expressing ourselves creatively.

Mad Hatter's Tea, a Women's Retreat tradition, is on Saturday, so bring a fancy hat!

Special Option: Massages!

Karen Cady, a massage therapist, will be offering her services at retreat. Karen offers both chair and table massage, and the prices start at $1/minute. 10-minute chair massage = $10. Payments are made directly to Karen Cady, and are completely separate from fees paid to N Sid Sen.

We will gather at N-Sid-Sen, a camp and conference center owned and operated by the Pacific Northwest Conference of the United Church of Christ. N-Sid-Sen is located on the eastern shore of beautiful Lake Coeur d'Alene in northern Idaho.

You may choose from accommodations for the retreat: Syringa Lodge (limited to 18, 2 per room, private bathrooms) or Spirit Lodge (limited to 32, 2-4 per room, shared bathrooms), or cabins (bathrooms up the trail). Register early for the best choice.
